

Abstract

5

L-shaped frame member and frame for a wheelchair. The frame member comprises a first arm with a first cross section, a second arm with a second cross section, and a knee-shaped composite element. The first arm is connected to the second arm via the knee-shaped composite element. A firm connection between 10 the first arm and the knee-shaped composite element and a solid connection between the second arm and the knee-shaped composite element being formed by portions of a mounting glue).

(Fig. 1)